VEHICLE REGISTRATION INSURANCE GUIDE

License Plate number

Your verification time frame begins _____ of _____.
Month Year

If you changed insurance companies or coverage during the verification time frame, log on to www.dmvnv.com and enter your current insurance information. You will need to follow up online with the DMV to ensure your Nevada insurance has been validated.

CUSTOMER SHOULD

- Compare your certificate of registration to your vehicle to ensure the vehicle identification number is the same.
 - Contact DMV to correct your certificate of registration, if the information is not the same.
- Compare your certificate of registration to your evidence of insurance card to ensure your name and vehicle identification number is the same. Your name on your certificate of registration and evidence of insurance card should match your name on your driver's license.
 - Contact DMV to correct your certificate of registration, if the information is not the same.
 - Contact your insurance company to correct your insurance policy, if the information is not the same.
- Review your evidence of insurance card or policy to see if you had insurance coverage during the entire month and year in question.
 - Ensure your evidence of insurance card is for Nevada Liability Insurance.
 - If there was a lapse, you must reinstate your vehicle registration by going to your local DMV, using the web, or kiosk.

REINSTATEMENT

If you did not have insurance, you need to reinstate your vehicle registration. Reinstatement requirements Per NRS 485.317, are:

- Provide current Nevada evidence of insurance, and
- Pay the reinstatement fee.
